NOTE FOR: The Director
FROM: John Helgerson
SUBJECT: Yesterday's Votes on Nicaragua and Angola

Nicaragua

As you know, the House rejected the Administration's assistance package by a vote of 219-211. As far as members of the House Intelligence Committee are concerned, only one Democrat (Charlie Wilson) voted for the package. All of the other sitting Democrats (Stokes, Beilenson, Kastenmeier, Roe, McHugh, Dwyer, Kennelly, and Glickman) were opposed. Furthermore, the two new Democrats slated to join the Committee (Mavroules and Richardson) voted against the package. The Republicans on the Committee unanimously supported the Administration. All of the members adhered to their established voting patterns on this issue.
